We understand that the rabbits of Antwerp, Almena, and Paw Paw townships, have called a convention, calculating to have a jubilee over his death. All canines are to be excluded.

The pastor of the Porter Methodist Protestant church. Rev. Wm. Tomkinson, would express his thanks to the church and friends of Porter, for a donation visit at the house of Bro. James W. Burlington on the evening of the 14th day of March. The amount of donation was $54.00, and the gathering was social and pleasant. May God reward the friends for their kindness.

A few days since a chap calling himself Fred Gilson, came to the Clifton House, where he divested himself of his outer garment, an old brown overcoat which he hung carefully up, taking care to remove the contents of the pockets which he placed in the pockets of a new coat belonging to David Blake, and placed David's property in the old coat. When he left, he being absent minded, arrayed himself in the new garment leaving the old one for David. Officer Flanders being informed of the matter, pursued the gentleman and caught him at Gravel Hill. He took him before Esq. Galligan, where the fellow pleaded that it was all a C. S. Adams, of Lawton, was on our streets | mistake. The Squire fined him a dollar and sent him to the cooler for ten days, on account of his carelessness. Shortly after he was taken there, he was recognized by Mc-Cabe and Flanders as a forger who was wanted in St. Jo. County, Flanders having a card in his pocket describing him and offering $25 reward for his capture. An officer from Constantine has been here and fully identified the rascal. He belongs to a gang who go around the country selling school blanks, getting signatures to orders, and then converting them into promissory notes.
